Melanie Louise D. Alabanza

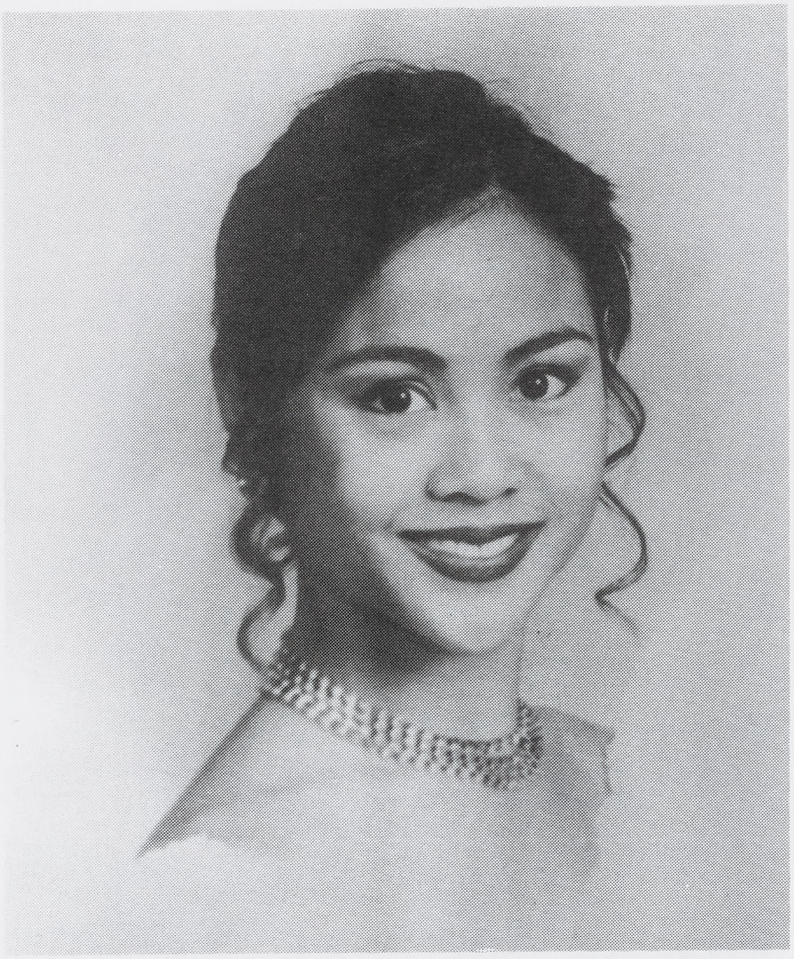
Melanie is the daughter of Floro and Obelia (nee Doctor) Alabanza. Their other two children are Florence Jasmin and Floro Junior. She was born on September 26, 1979 in New Orleans, Louisiana, and grew up here in San Diego, California. Melanie attends Samuel F.B. Morse High School where this fall she will be a senior. She works to her fullest as an honor student to maintain her excellent grade point average. In addition to sustaining high GPA, Melanie believes that it is very important to take part in school activities and organizations. During her freshman year, she was in the Associated Student Body and the Future Educators of America as secretary in both organizations. During her sophomore year, she was a part of the Morse Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad, and in her junior year, she was in the Junior Executive Council and Speech Team.

Melanie has many other interests. Always enthusiastic in learning about her Filipino heritage, she joined the Samahan Philippine Dance Company in late 1992 as a student in order to know more about the beauty of her culture. She is now a senior dancer for the Company and performs Filipino folk dances for various audiences. Being a Filipino-American, Melanie hopes tobe as successful in life as possible. In doing so, she plans to graduate from college and become Chemical Engineer.



Michelle Aguilar Camaya

Michelle Aguilar Camaya is the youngest child and only daughter of Arturo Camaya and Violet Aguilar. Her two brothers are Jojo and Jay. Her primary years of education began at St. Michael Academy, where she held the position of Commissioner General of the Student Council. Enrolled at the University of San Diego High School, Michelle served as the Junior Varsity Cheer Captain. She transferred to the distinguished San Diego School of Creative and Performing Arts in her junior year. As a senior, she became actively involved with ASB serving as Commissioner of Activities. It is here where she excelled and enjoyed applying her love for dancing, consequently receiving the Honorary Dance Award.

Michelle has been dancing since she was four years of age. Her dance disciplines include ballet, ballroom, modern, and Polynesian, as well a native Philippine dances. She developed these dance techniques from esteemed schools including the Ballet Conservatory, Samahan Philippine Dance Company, the Body Arts Center, Champion Ballroom Academy and Dance Sport, Stage 7, City Moves, and Isaac, McCaleb and Dancers. In 1993, Michelle starred in the lead role in the successful City Moves Production of "To be or Not to Be", and original play by William Conrow.

Currently, she is a scholar at the University of California at Irvine. While involved with her first year of studies and school productions, Michelle had the opportunity to participate in the South Coast Repertory community production, Ballad of Yachiyo, the world premiere of a new play by Philip Kan Gotanda. She is working towards a Bachelor's degree with Dance Major and is deciding to enter the field of Broadcasting. Additionally, Michelle and her ballroom dance partner, Spencer Smith, will be representing San Diego's Champion Ballroom Academy and Dance Sport in the Ohio Star Ball this November.

Jd Lynn B. Chiong

Jd Lynn is the oldest daughter of Domingo and Ruby Pearl (nee Bersamin) Chiong, two other daughters being Reina and Taryn. Born on August 31, 1978, she recently graduated from Castle Park High School and will be majoring in Engineering at the San Diego State University starting this Fall. In high school, she took rigorous honors, A.P. and I.B. classes, while involved in extra-curricular activities as secretary of the American-Asian Club, Assistant Tribune of Assemblies of the Associated Student Body (ASB), and a pole vaulter of the school track and field team. She has been published in Who's Who Among High School Students for four years and also in the All-American Scholar Directory.

Besides being an outstanding high school student, Jd has also excelled in Karate and Philippine folk dancing. In 1992 to 1994, she took Karate classes, acquiring her Brown Belt, several trophies and medals in various nationwide Karate tournaments. She started dancing at the early age of two. When her mother, Rudy Pearl Bersamin Chiong, initiated the Junior Samahan Dance group in 1983, Jd was one of the original dancers and the youngest in the group, performing with it till 1989. Then she joined the senior division of the Samahan Philippine Dance Company and still actively performs at present. She was awarded a plaque by the Dance Company for her outstanding performance and dedication during its 20th anniversary gala in 1994.

Kelly Centeno de Guzman

Kelly Centeno de Guzman, the only daughter of Atty. Marc De Guzman from Pamplona, Cagayan and the former Norma Centeno from Vigan, Ilocos Sur, was born on January 16, 1978. Her two brothers, Allan and Kevin both have college degress in Business Accounting. Inspite of Kelly's young age, she has lots of achievements and accomplishments. She graduated with honors at the University of San Diego High School; a recipient of the California Scholastic Federation 100% membership and National Honor Society; a part of the Ambassador for Christ Corps 1994-1996; elected ASB Junior Class Secretary 1994-95 and ASB Secretary 1995-96. She received the Bishop Leo T. Maher and Peninsula Bank Award as an Outstanding Junior; the Associated Student Body Outstanding Service Award and the Presidential Academic Achievement Award. She is in the Who's Who Among American High School Students and one of the Outstanding Fil-Am Youth of San Diego County.

Kelly is a combination of talent and beauty. She was first runner-up in the Miss Teen Asian California Pageant 1994 where she also received the Best in Interview Award, Most Spirited Award, and over-all People's Choice Award. She was COPAO Lakambini 1994; second Princess in the Miss Teen Cagayan Luzon, USA '95; Miss Manila Bulletin, San Diego '95; Miss Body Arts Foundation '95; Miss Fil-Am of San Diego County 1995-1996; Miss Fil-Am Humanitarian Foundation 1995-96; first runner-up or Miss Luzon in the Miss Philippines Pageant '96, where she also got the Best Talent Award for her Binasuan dance.

Kelly spends her spare time being involved in extra-curricular activities. She is in the Service Club at USDHS; supervises sports for Parochial Schools; has been a dancer of Samahan Philippine Dance Company for eleven years. She also dances ballet, jazz, Polynesian and plays the piano and sings. Kelly will continue her college education at the University of San Diego, where she will take Business Accounting and then pursue her career in Law and Politics.

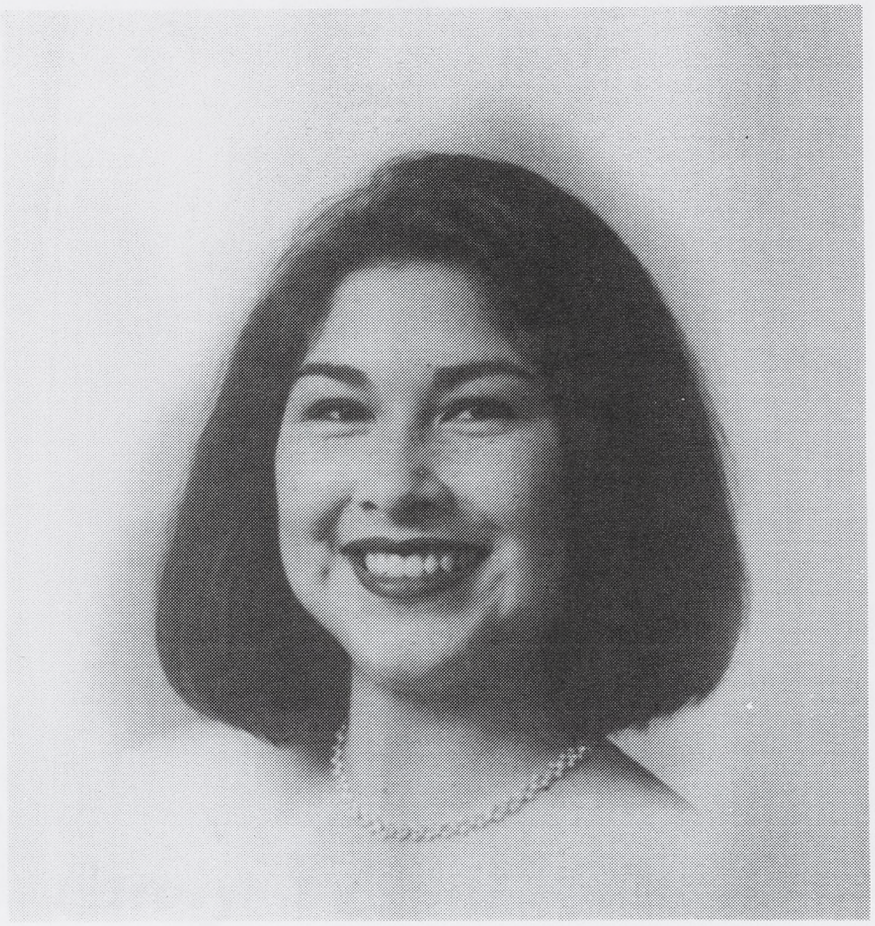
Abigayle C. Juan

Abigayle Clavano Juan was born eighteen years ago on November 7, 1977, in Long Beach, California. She is the daughter of Mr. Jerry Dimalanta Juan and Mrs. Maria Luisa Clavano Juan of Chula Vista, California. Abigayle Juan is called Abi by her family and friends. Abi has a vibrant, outgoing, and engaging personality and is also noted for her positive, independent, and objective views concerning life.

Abi graduated from Bonita Vista High School in June of 1995. She is currently an undergraduate at Southwestern Community College where she is studying Teaching. Upon completion of matriculation at Southwestern, Abi will continue her education at San Diego State University. After graduation from SDSU, Abi's goal is to become an elementary school teacher and pursue her penchant for teaching children.

Abi is an extremely active young lady as manifest in the many activities in which she participates. She is a senior dancer of the Samahan Philippine Dance Company. She is a guitarist and a principle vocalist in her brother's band.

The parents of Abigayle Clavano Juan take great pleasure and extreme pride in presenting her to you on this grand and glorious occasion.



Anne Marie B. Monroe

Anne Marie Bulseco Monroe is 17 years old and the only child of Dennis Monroe from Ida Grove, Iowa and Mary Bulseco Monroe from San Fernando, La Union, Philippines. She recently graduated from the University of San Diego High School, where she was an honor student, a recipient of the Presidential Award for Academic Achievement, a life-time member of the California Scholastic Federation and a member of the Ambassadors of Christ Corps, school year 1995-1996. Listed in the Who's Who Among High School Students for 1994-1995, she has also been recently awarded the same privilege for 1995-1996 school year.

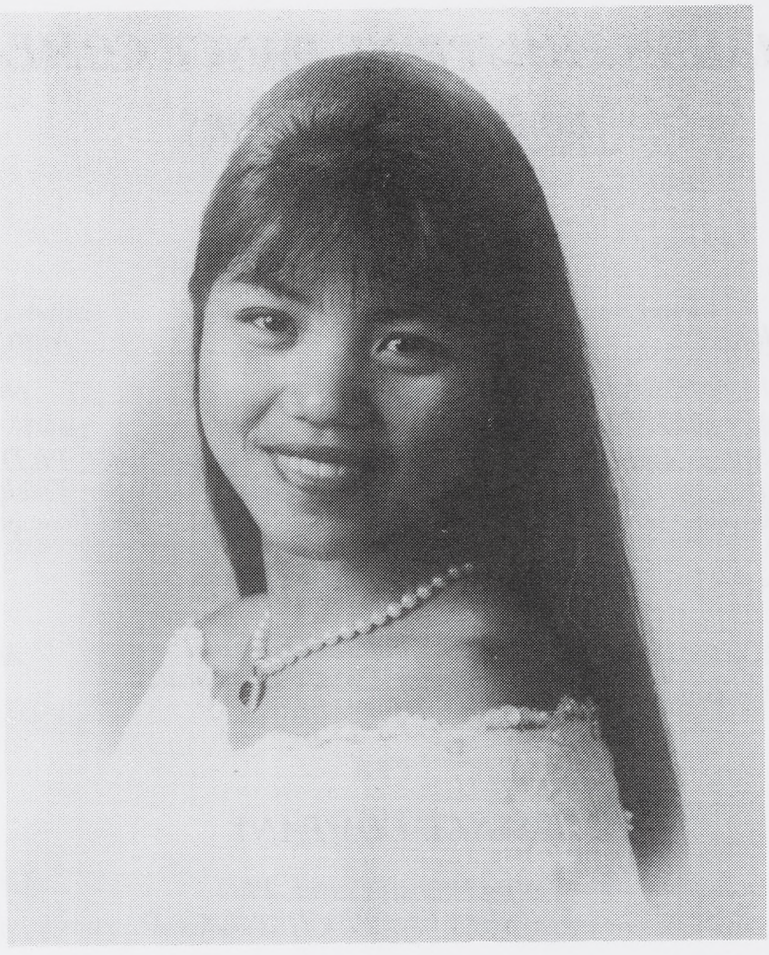
Anne Marie will be attending the University of California in Santa Barbara this fall, majoring in Pharmacology. When not working, she enjoys relaxing and spending time with her family and friends. She has been involved in various forms of community service, such as visiting orphanages in Tijuana, in conjunction with the USD High School Service Club, assisting in the Special Olympics, working as a teacher's aide at Holy Family School in San Diego, and as a volunteer at the Paradise Valley Hospital. She has also performed with the Samahan Philippine Dance Company.

Katherine Miaco Munoz

Katherine, affectionately called "Kathy" by friends, is the daughter of Rolando Cabrillas Munoz and Roselyn Miaco Munoz. She was born in the beautiful city of New Orleans on April 17, 1979. Katherine attended Valencia Elementary School as a G.A.T.E. student, moved on to O'Farrell School for Junior High School and currently attends Samuel F. B. Morse High School where she will be a senior this fall. Her school affiliations included: O'Farrell Tennis Club, O'Farrell yearbook staff, O'Farrell Filipino Club, Morse High School "Letterettes" Auxiliary unit, and Morse DECA (Marketing). In her freshman year, she was selected as a Humanities Student, which is for those placed in advanced English and History courses.

Kathy has always had a strong interest in her Filipino culture. Growing up as a military child has helped her understand America's racial multiplicity and helped her appreciate Filipino heritage and culture. In search for a better understanding of Philippine customs and traditions, she joined O'Farrell Filipino Club in junior high and took two years of Filipino class at Morse High School. As a member of the Samahan Philippine Dance Company, Katherine continues to promote Philippine culture and traditions through artistic dance interpretations.

Her great interest and desire in helping physically challenged children made her decide to major in Physical Therapy in college. Right now, she is just happy to be a loving daughter and a caring "Ate" to Jay, her younger brother.



Carolynn Canoza Santilla

My name is Carolynn Canoza Santilla, daughter of Gil and Pat Santilla and the middle sister of three girls. Born on June 28, 1979 in San Diego, California. Living in Penasquitos all my life, I first attended Los Penasquitos Elementary then moved to Sunset Hills Elementary. So moving on to a junior high, I attended Black Mountain Middle School and now I am an incoming senior at Mt. Carmel High School. While maintaining a 3.8 GPA, I hope to attend UCLA or UC Berkeley next Fall. I plan to major in sociology or criminology and minor in political science, hoping to become a FBI agent or sociologist or an official in the government social services system.

I have been involved at the Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish as the Head Usher for six years, a singer in the church choir "Sound of Hope" for three years and a bible study teacher for three years. For three years, I have also been part of the Heart to Heart and Batang Familia team presentations, sponsored by Project Heart to Heart all over San Diego for the enhancement of Filipino culture and bridging generation gap. In addition to many community service projects, I have been part of the volunteer group called SAVY (Student Actively Volunteering for You) for five years. My school activities are, incoming senior class President, past ASB Historian, past Fil-Am vice-president and public relations, CSF and French club activities commissioner, school senator, link crew member, Fresh Start mentor and yearbook staff member for two years. I am also a member of the Key Club, Interact and Spectrum Club. As far as sports are concerned, I am triple and long jumper as well as a discuss thrower in our school's track and field team. My hobbies include singing, dancing, photography, talking on the phone, spending time with family and friends and working out in the Naval Base facilities or in school. In addition to all of these activities, I enjoy occasional walks on the beach and going out to the bowling alley and movies.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The programs of the Samahan Philippine Dance Company are funded in part by the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture and grants from the California Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts.

We wish to thank our 1996 Debutantes, their parents and families; our patrons, sponsors, contributors, volunteers and the families of our performing artists, who have made financial and in-kind contributions; provided services and materials in the interest of preserving, developing and presenting the traditional performing arts of the Philippines.

We would also like to express our profound gratitude to Ms. Juanita Santos Nacu and the Project Heart to Heart team for conducting the family workshop; to Dr. Juanita Caccam for the lessons on social graces; to Mr. Manuel Cavada of Creative Images for his magnificent photos, his generosity and forbearance; and to Mr. Mcking Alanis for the table manners/setting workshop, for being the guest Master of Ceremonies and specially for his advice and support.
